Cracking Comprehension

Fourth edition

Parent and Pupil Guide

What is Cracking Comprehension?

Cracking Comprehension* is an easy-to-use and effective resource to help children practise and improve their reading comprehension skills across a range of text types and genres. Teachers can assign quizzes for children to practise key skills at school or as homework.

Cracking Comprehension* features a huge range of text extracts covering fiction, non-fiction, poetry and playscripts, including texts from some of the most popular children's authors. The questions linked to each extract cover essential comprehension skills that are part of the National Curriculum for English.

The screenshot displays the 'Cracking Comprehension Fourth Edition Year 3' interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a back arrow, the 'CRACKING COMPREHENSION' logo, and the title 'Cracking Comprehension Fourth Edition Year 3'. Below this, there are two tabs: 'My Missions' (selected) and 'My Achievements'. The main content area shows a student profile with a cartoon superhero avatar, the text 'Student Test', and a link 'Change my Avatar'. Below the profile, it states 'You have 2 missions available'. The missions are listed in a table-like format:

Assigned by	Text Extract	Due in	Action
Mr Baxter	Clever Polly and the Stupid Wolf - Catherine Storr	14 days	Take test
Mr Baxter	Antonio and the Brigands	14 days	Take test

Get started with Cracking Comprehension

Cracking Comprehension* can be accessed from any computer, tablet or phone connected to the internet. Your child's school can give you direct access to Cracking Comprehension by providing you with a unique URL link.

Alternatively, pupils can log in via: my.risingstars-uk.com and enter the school's unique centre ID and their own login details, provided by your school.

If you have any problems with the login process, please contact your child's school.

How to use Cracking Comprehension

1. Completing the quizzes

Each text in Cracking Comprehension has 10 questions, designed to test knowledge and understanding of different elements of the National Curriculum.

- The text on the left of the split-screen can be expanded to fill the screen, so it can be read in full before completing the questions.
- The arrow buttons at the bottom of the screen can be used to navigate between questions. If a question has not been answered, the question number will show in red. Once a question is completed, it will turn green.

The quiz cannot be marked until all questions have been answered.

- After completing question 10, click on the tick icon to see the results and review the answers. Don't close the quiz window before submitting, or your answers will not be registered in My Achievements.
- Quizzes in years 1 and 2 have audio to accompany the text.

The Gunpowder Plot

Four hundred years ago, Catholics and Protestants living in England did not get on. King James I was on the throne. He was a Protestant. He did not let Catholics practise their religion.

In 1605 one Catholic, Robert Catesby, got a group of friends together. They wanted to kill the king. They plotted to blow up the Houses of Parliament.

One of the plotters, Guy Fawkes, sneaked into the cellars under the Houses of Parliament. His job was to set light to some gunpowder and blow up the building. Before he could do this, the king's guards captured him.

The next day, news spread that the king had survived a plot to kill him. Londoners lit bonfires to celebrate.

Today, we still celebrate the fact that the Gunpowder Plot failed. Every year on November the 5th we let off fireworks, build bonfires and set light to models of Guy Fawkes.

At the bottom of the text box is an audio player with a progress bar at 0:00 / 1:16, a volume icon, and a download icon.

On the right, there is a question: "What do we do today to celebrate the fact that the Gunpowder Plot failed?" with four multiple-choice options:

- 1) We have parties.
- 2) We sing songs.
- 3) We let off fireworks.
- 4) We eats lots of food.

At the bottom of the screen, there is a navigation bar showing "Question : 9 of 10" and a row of question numbers from 2 to 10. Question 9 is highlighted in green, and question 10 is highlighted in red. There are also navigation arrows and a tick icon on the right.

2. Question types

Cracking Comprehension includes a range of question types. Many are multiple choice, which are answered by selecting one or more options. Make sure you select the right number of options or you won't be able to submit your answers at the end of the quiz.

Other question types include:

- Table ticks: These questions ask you to categorize information in different columns e.g. true or false. Simply select the correct options in the table.
- Line connector: If you're asked to link different boxes, e.g. matching words to their meanings, click on one box in the left hand column followed by the other in the right-hand column to make the link. You have to click on all the boxes to complete the question.

Looking After Your New Cat

Read the sentences below and choose whether they are 'True' or 'False' based on the text.

You should spend time playing with your cat.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
You should feed your cat three times a day.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
You don't need to give your cat a bed.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
You should brush your cat.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Text content:
Settling in: Keep your cat indoors for two weeks. She needs to get used to her new home before she goes outside. Your cat also needs to get used to you. Spend time every day picking her up, stroking her and playing with her.
Sleeping: You can give your cat her own bed, but she may not use it. Most cats like to choose where they sleep!
Feeding: Feed your cat twice a day. Make sure your cat always has fresh water to drink. As a treat, you could give her a saucer of special lactose-free cat milk.
Brushing: Brush your cat once a week. This will keep her fur shiny and free of tangles. If your cat

Text content:
He was walking along the beach one morning when he saw something lying in the sand amongst the seaweed. It looked like a big log at first, but it wasn't.
It was moving.
It had a tail and a head.
It was a dolphin!
Jim knelt in the sand beside him. The boy and the dolphin looked into each other's eyes. Jim knew then exactly what he had to do.
"Don't worry," he said. "I'll fetch help. I'll be back soon, I promise."
He ran all the way up the hill to the school as fast as he could go. Everyone was in the playground.

- Sorting: If you are asked to sort information into different categories, e.g. ordering events, click on the answer option followed by the category. Each category is a different colour to make it easy to see how you have categorised your answers. Click on all the answers to complete the question.

- Highlight word: Double-click or click and drag to highlight the correct answer. On an iPad or tablet, hold your finger down to highlight a single word and hold and drag to highlight multiple words. Take care to only select what the question has asked for, e.g. do not select extra words.

- Open text: Some questions ask for a typed-in word, phrase or longer answer. Take care to spell the answer correctly, especially when finding and copying words from the text. Questions asking for longer written answers will be marked by a teacher.

Edith Cavell

Edith Cavell was a British nurse. In 1907, she went to Belgium to run a school for nurses.

In July 1914, the First World War broke out. The British, French and Russians were on one side in the war. They called themselves the allied forces. The Germans were on the other side.

In November 1914, the Germans invaded Belgium. Edith began hiding allied soldiers and helping them to escape. She knew she was putting herself in danger by doing this.

The German army arrested Edith Cavell in August 1915. By then, she had helped almost 200 soldiers to escape.

The Germans put Edith Cavell on trial and...

Dolphin Boy
Michael Morpurgo

He was walking along the beach one morning when he saw something lying in the sand amongst the seaweed. It looked like a big log at first, but it wasn't.

It was moving.

It had a tail and a head.

It was a dolphin!

What is the name of the boy in the story?

3. Keeping track of your missions

Teachers will assign quizzes to their pupils. Assigned quizzes will appear on the 'My Missions' screen (accessible from the 'My Achievements' button at top right of the screen) when you login to Cracking Comprehension. Note that if pupils have access to more than one year group, you must be in the right year group to find a quiz in 'My Missions'. Teachers will give a date for the quizzes to be completed by.

The screenshot shows the 'My Missions' screen of the 'Cracking Comprehension Fourth Edition Year 3' app. At the top, there is a green header with a back arrow, the 'CRACKING COMPREHENSION' logo, and the text 'Cracking Comprehension Fourth Edition Year 3'. Below the header, there are two tabs: 'My Missions' (selected) and 'My Achievements'. The main content area features a 'Student Test' profile card with a cartoon superhero avatar, the text 'Student Test', a 'Change my Avatar' link, and the message 'You have 2 missions available'. Below this, there are two mission cards, each assigned by 'Mr Baxter' and due in 14 days. The first mission is 'Clever Polly and the Stupid Wolf - Catherine Storr' with a 'Take test' button. The second mission is 'Antonio and the Brigands' with a 'Take test' button.

4. Results and rewards

For each quiz they complete, pupils will receive bronze, silver or gold stars, based on the proportion of correct answers they scored. Note that some questions are worth more than one mark. At the end of the test, pupils can review their answers.

Some questions in Key Stage Two require open responses and will be marked by teachers – this is indicated in the question rubric. The result at the end of the quiz will show a teacher icon instead of a star, and the total mark will be those awarded so far. Once these questions have been marked, children can review their full mark and any teacher feedback by clicking on the corresponding quiz in ‘My Achievements’.

5. Keeping track of achievements

Pupils can review their quizzes by clicking on 'My Achievements' at the top right of the screen. Pupils can personalise the 'My Achievements' page by choosing their own avatar.

You will be able to see every quiz that has been attempted (sorted by topic) and those still left to do.

Teachers can see how their pupils are doing individually and as a class through the teacher reporting dashboard.

The screenshot shows the 'My Achievements' page for a user named 'Student Test'. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a back arrow, the 'CRACKING COMPREHENSION' logo, and the text 'Cracking Comprehension Fourth Edition Year 3'. Below this, there are two tabs: 'My Missions' and 'My Achievements', with 'My Achievements' being the active tab. The user's profile is shown with an avatar of a superhero, the name 'Student Test', and a link to 'Change my Avatar'. Below the profile, it says 'I've not taken any quizzes yet.' To the right of the profile, there are three achievement icons: Bronze (0), Silver (0), and Gold (0). Below the profile section, there is a table with two columns: 'Topics' and 'My Achievements'. The 'My Achievements' column has a sub-header 'Click the stars to open your achievement'. The table shows two rows: 'Fiction' and 'Non-Fiction'. The 'Fiction' row has 14 stars, with the first two stars filled and the rest empty. The 'Non-Fiction' row has 14 empty stars.
